Post Graduate Diploma in Gandhian Social Work

Course Syllabus

Objective of the Program

- Retune graduates with social work study background or professional students with social work experience / aptitude towards a Gandhian Approach to Rural Development Social Work.
- Note: The course will be developed through experimentation. The course content for the first batch will be custom tailored for a pilot project region in Maharashtra. To be optimal the final contents will also incorporate the suggestions of the students so that the course has sufficient richness in terms of concepts, skills and practical exposure.

Qualification

Master of Social Work ; Graduates of Professional Studies relevant to rural development with at least one year experience in Social Work or Exceptional Aptitude / Innovative Ideas.

Methodology

- The Program will be of one year duration out of which the last six months will be for internship. The first six months also will be spent with field work and campus study in a 50:50 equation;
- Month 1 : After a weeklong orientation , the students will be on a village stay and study program for three weeks in which they will understand the realities of the rural area which will form the 'field action zone' for the program.
- Month 2: Course 1: Gandhian approach to Development Social work. People with skill gaps will be given essential inputs to be ready for the next course.
- Month 3: Course 2: Methods and Techniques for Gandhian Social Work might be conducted in the field itself through a 'learning through doing / problem solving approach'
- Month 4: Course 3 Development and Welfare Programs of India. Basically a self study and presentation by students; should preferably be conducted in an ambience of related schemes.
- Month 5 and 6: Course 4: Internship for Six weeks. The seventh and eighth week will be for mid-term evaluation and related preparation.
- Months 7-12: Course 5: Placement (with relevant agency). It could also take the form of continuation of Internship. During this period the student will be expected to prepare a dream Project
